

News

David J. Golde, experienced attorney, appointed as Northern California Marketing Director for InsuredSupport.com

October 15, 2017 – San Diego, California: Richard Zizian JD – CEO is pleased to announce that the company's InsuredSupport®, Marital Settlement Agreement Insurance ("MSAI") IncomeAssure® supplemental unemployment insurance program covering child and spousal support payments, underwritten by Great American Insurance Group, will have the experience and expertise of David J. Golde Esq. who has joined our team as the Executive Marketing Director for Northern California. David will interface with family law attorneys, divorce services professionals, local and regional bar associations and government support agencies in all Northern California counties to spearhead our initiative to address the support delinquency crisis in California and the nation.

David has been a member of the California Bar since 1965 and had dedicated the major portion of his career to family law in the following capacities; Certified Family Law Specialist, State Bar of California Board of Legal Specialization Family Law Facilitator, Shasta and Trinity Counties, Family Law Practice for 14 years and Neutral Family Law Services. David also served as a USAF Reserve, Judge Advocate, and was in General Private Practice 1970. He is a graduate of University of California at Los Angeles, AB 1962, Political Science and UCLA Law School, JD.